KIMON KARATHANASOPOULOS

CYBERSECURITY STUDENT

PROFILE

Undergraduate cybersecurity student with an interest in reverse engineering, computer architectures, hardware description languages, and networks. Always trying to learn and get hands-on involvement on the field.

LINKS

linkedin.com/in/kkarath

github.com/kaimoe

CONTACT

kimon.kar@protonmail.com

SKILLS

Languages: English (Native), Greek (Native)

Technical: Unix/Linux, Python, Go, Javascript/Node.js, C/C++, SQL, Open-Source Software Collaboration

Professional: Efficient, Skilled Problem-Solver, Quick Learner, Attentive to Detail

EDUCATION

BSc in Information Technology (Cybersecurity and Networks) @ DEREE– The American College of Greece

2016 – Present

WORK EXPERIENCE

Smart Wireless Future Technologies (SWIFT) Lab Member @ DEREE – The American College of Greece

Jan 2021 – Present

• Working on the setup and usage of distributed wireless network emulators to facilitate a software-defined network topology over a software-defined radio architecture.

• Aiming to produce a usable physical distributed network that follows the above approach.

Information Technology Trainee @ Eurolife FFH

Sep 2020 – Dec 2020

• Took responsibility for the installation and configuration of new workstations (Windows 10, Eurolife Applications) and the replacement of IT hardware / equipment.
• Provided technical/operational service to networking equipment, printers, and more, as well as IT Helpdesk services.

Resident Assistant @ DEREE– The American College of Greece

May 2019 – Apr 2020

• Facilitated the social, academic, and personal adjustment of incoming study abroad students living in the residence halls.

Computer Lab Assistant @ DEREE– The American College of Greece

Jan 2018 - Apr 2019

• Directly oversaw the upkeep and basic maintenance of 2 computer labs
• Assisted students with computer/software use, account management, and general tech issues.

SEMINARS

Nov 2016/19/20 – 2nd/5th/6th Internet Security Day, Deree MIS and IT Societies

Aug 2013 – Junior Summer School; 8th Meet your Future, Athens Information Technology